

FENCE GONE: OLD LANDMARK IS MOURNED

Another of Hammond's old landmarks is gone. The iron fence which for years has surrounded the home of E. P. Ames at 13 Webb street and scorned the dictates of "style" as applied to homes, has been torn down. Its absence is noticeable for it had become a part of the community.

Recently Judge Ames sold his home and moved to Crawfordsville. The new owner, H. H. Gage, is fixing up the place and among other changes the fence was condemned.

The Ames home is probably the oldest in that part of Hammond. It was built about fifty years ago. Its builder

Dandruff Surely Destroys the Hair

Girls—if you want plenty of thick, beautiful, glossy, silky hair, do by all means get rid of dandruff, for it will starve your hair and ruin it if you don't.

It doesn't do much good to try to brush or wash it out. The only sure way to get rid of dandruff is to dissolve it then you destroy it entirely. To do this, get about four ounces of ordinary liquid arvon; apply it at night when retiring; use enough to moisten the scalp and rub it in gently with the finger tips.

By morning most if not all of your dandruff will be gone, and three or four more applications will completely destroy every single sign and trace of it.

You will find, too, that all itching and digging of the scalp will stop, and your hair will look and feel a hundred times better. You can get liquid arvon at any drug store. It is inexpensive and four ounces is all you will need, no matter how much dandruff you have. This simple remedy never fails—adv.

THOUSANDS PAY FINAL TRIBUTE TO ROGER SULLIVAN

Pallbearers carrying the casket from Holy Name cathedral.

Thousands, standing with uncovered heads, paid silent tribute to the memory of Roger Sullivan as the final rites were performed over the body of Chicago's late Democratic chief. The funeral was one of the most impressive in the history of the city. It is estimated that 2,000 persons gathered at the Sullivan house, 10,000 assembled at the cathedral, 3,000 marched in the funeral procession, and 35,000 persons watched the cortege wind its way through Chicago streets.

disregarding the jeers of those who said it was folly to believe that Hammond's residence district would ever move so far south as Webb st. In other words, he was informed that his home would forever remain in the jungles. It was the first house of any pretension to be erected in that part of town.

As the words of the carpenter disproved and the number of houses increased, Webb st. took on real village airs and the result was the handsome iron fence. Everybody had some sort of fence in those days, board, picket, hedge or iron. It was necessary to protect the flower beds and small garden plots from the ravages of wandering cows and hogs.

Times changed and fences went out of style. They disappeared with the board sidewalks and flagstone street crossings. Once more the builder of the Ames house took a radical stand; the fence should remain. In the years it had adorned the premises, ivy and other vines had inlaid themselves through it until little of the iron work was visible in the leafy season. It had become a thing of beauty. Then there was the old gate. It was never latched, but always swung at the mercy of the wind. A squeak had developed which the judge long ago gave up curing. Although it could be heard almost any time when the wind blew, it bothered no one, for like the old fence, the squeak had also become a part of the community.

As long as Judge Ames held the place the existence of the fence was assured, but for the new owner it had no sentimental connections. Progress is inexorable and the result is that fence and vines, gate and squeak are gone forever.

Does 3¢ = Americanism?

Did you know that 3c is MORE than the churches average from each member per day?

WE AMERICANS may be thoughtless. Sometimes we may appear selfish. But when a great need arises, no one can say that we have ever shirked.

Ask any son of France. Ask any soldier of Great Britain. Or ask any Armenian mother or a girl with a red cross on her sleeve or one with a tambourine in her hand.

And now the churches come to us for help—our churches. Not begging. Not asking alms. But with heads lifted high facing a task so worthy that we, as loyal Americans, ought to feel it a privilege to help.

Here is the Plain, Unvarnished Truth

We don't need to be told that the church is the heart of the Nation. We admit its influence for lasting good in our children. We see its stabilizing influence on our communities. We know a little of its great hospitals, its homes for children, its schools and colleges here and abroad.

But most of us do not realize how pitifully inadequate the support of the churches is when compared to the urgent needs.

Less than 3¢ a day!

In spite of the great tasks which we expect our churches to carry out, those of us who give to the church—and the number is all too few—are now giving an average of less than 3¢ a day for all church purposes.

Less than 3¢ a day.

Shall our churches go on? It is for you to say. Without your help the work of your church must be just that much less.

Give—and give from your heart as well as from your pocketbook.

A World Survey Was Made
Our churches know the needs that must be met. They know exactly how every dollar—every penny—will be used for the greatest good without waste.

A world survey was made by the churches that astounds business men in its thoroughness. County after county was studied; the countries of the world were visited and reported in minute detail.

How the Interchurch World Movement Originated
Our churches said: "The task of meeting the urgent needs shown by the world survey is too great for us to do individually as denominations. We must do this work together."

So thirty great denominations are cooperating—each keeping its own purpose and identity—but all working together under the name of the Interchurch World Movement.

Because of this cooperation, it is estimated that over one million dollars will be saved alone in eliminating waste and duplication.

The Famous European Tenor Concert Mr. Josef Rosenblatt a Phenomenal Tenor

Having won the New York and leading cities' music critics to his banner, Mr. Rosenblatt, the great tenor, will come to Gary on Sunday, May 2nd, to perform a concert at the Gary theater. After his metropolitan concert at Carnegie Hall, Mr. Rosenblatt evoked thunderous approval, so quoted the New York American, and some authorities went so far as to pronounce his voice the most remarkable tenor since the debut of Caruso.

In His Operatic Airs

there was more than a suggestion of Caruso, said the New York Times. The program which Mr. Rosenblatt is to sing is considered to be just the sort to test his voice in all kinds of singing. One of the features most commented on by singers is the extraordinary power of trilling, of which his voice is capable. Mr. Rosenblatt turns handsprings in coloratura that Galli Curci or Borriantes might envy, said the New York Tribune. Mr. Rosenblatt is with the management of the Music League of America, Inc. Touring the most leading cities in the United States and draws the largest crowds to his concerts. Mr. Rosenblatt sings in different tongues, English, French, Italian, Polish, Hebrew and Russian. Your investment to hear the famous tenor at the Gary theater will be worth your while.

Remember the Place

at the Gary theater, Sunday, May 2nd, at 2:15 p. m. Tickets on sale at the House of Muscat, the Emporium, Max Bernstein, Mr. Marks at the Lake Shore News Stand, and at Mr. Levy's, 27 West 16th avenue. Watch for further announcement.
